Election/Restrictions

The following restriction is made in response to applicant response filed 12/19/03. Applicant has canceled the claim under examination and submitted new claims 35-52 which includes specific sequences, for example. The burden of searching and examining all of the different invention has become apparent in the filing of the new claims.

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 35-42, drawn to a method of treating or preventing dementias of the Alzheimer's type of neuronal degeneration via the administration of antisense oligonucleotides, classified in class 514, subclass 44.
- II. Claims 43-45, drawn to a method of treating or preventing dementias of the Alzheimer's type of neuronal degeneration via the administration of ribozymes, classified in class 514, subclass 44.
- III. Claims 46-48, drawn to a method of treating or preventing dementias of the Alzheimer's type of neuronal degeneration via the administration of triplex forming oligonucleotides, classified in class 514, subclass 44.

- IV. Claims 49-52, drawn to a method of treating or preventing dementias of the Alzheimer's type of neuronal degeneration via the administration of external guide sequences, classified in class 514, subclass 44.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I-IV. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are different methods that use materially different compounds that act via different mechanisms to inhibit expression of a gene, for example. Antisense function via the recruitment of Rnase H, ribozymes catalytically cleave their target, EGS function in combination with RNase P, for example.

Groups I and IV are further restricted as below:

Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. 121 and 37 C.F.R. 1.141, the sequences listed in claims 38 and 51 are subject to restriction. The Commissioner has partially waived the requirements of 37 C.F.R. 1.141 and will permit a reasonable number of such nucleotide sequences to be claimed in a single application. Under this policy, up to 10 of independent and distinct nucleotide sequences will be examined in a single application. (see MPEP 803.04 and 2434)

The above claims in groups I and IV specifically claim antisense or EGSs by SEQ ID NOS which are targeted to and modulates the expression of NTP. Although the sequences claimed each target the same gene, the instant sequences are considered to be unrelated, since each sequence claimed is structurally and functionally independent and distinct for the following reasons: each sequence has a unique nucleotide sequence, each sequence targets a different and specific region of NTP, and each, upon binding, functionally decreases the expression of the gene and to varying degree. Furthermore, a search of more than one (1) of the sequences claimed presents an undue burden on the Patent and Trademark Office due to the complex nature of the search and corresponding examination of more than one (1) of the claimed sequences. In view of the foregoing, one (1) sequence is considered to be a reasonable number of sequences for examination. Accordingly, applicants are required to elect one (1) sequence from claim 38 or 51 upon the election of Group I or II respectively.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

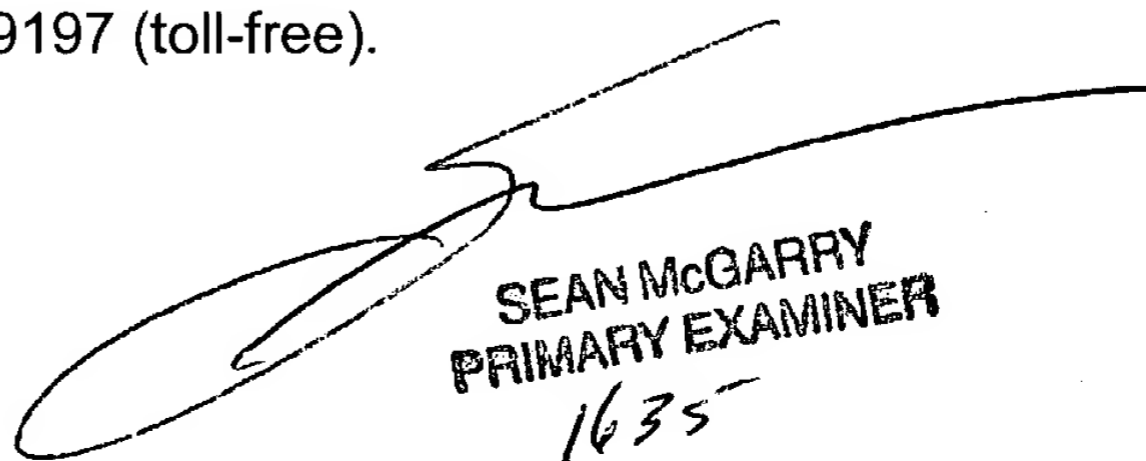

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Sean R McGarry whose telephone number is (571) 272-0761. The examiner can normally be reached on M-Th (6:00-4:30).
